This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. REGULATIONS FOR THE LIBRARY.

1. The Library shall be under the immediate inspection of a committee of two, to be chosen by the corporation, annually, whose duty it shall be to direct the expenditure of such sums as may be appropriated each year, in the purchase of new, and for the repairs of old books; consulting with the Librarian on the same; and to oversee the Library generally.

2. It shall be the duty of the Librarian to keep the Library in good order; to receive all books, whether donations or purchased; to enter the same in the books kept for that purpose, and to add them to the written catalogue, as soon as they may be ready for use. He will, under the direction of the committee, subscribe for and receive all periodical and other publications, from the agents or publishers, and cause the same to be bound, at the discretion of the committee. He shall call in all books from the officers of instruction and the students on the last day of each term, excepting from such as shall remain during the vacation; and all books from all others without exception, on the week next preceding Commencement; at which time he will make a return to the Corporation of all additions to, and the state of the Library generally. He will record all fines inflicted for the violation of the Library laws, and at the close of each term, will furnish the Steward with a list of the same, who shall collect them with the quarter bills: Provided, That every person so fined may have the liberty of appealing to the President for lessening or remitting the same.

3. The Library shall be opened, to loan books, three days in each week during term time, at such hours as the President may direct; and on Saturday, only, during the vacations. The books to be delivered out, in such order as the Librarian may direct.

4. The use of the Library shall be confined to the members of the Corporation, President, Professors, Tutors, and all resident Graduates, free of expense; and to the Students, for which they shall pay fifty cents per quarter.

5. The Librarian will require a receipt for every book delivered, and the same shall be covered with thick paper, which, if injured by writing upon or otherwise, he may fine the borrower therefor, at his discretion. If any book be lost or greatly damaged, it shall be replaced by a new one, within three months; if belonging to a set, the whole set to be replaced. If not replaced, the Librarian shall lodge with the Steward an account against such person, to double the amount of the value, which he will collect with the quarter bills, to be expended for the use of the Library, as the committee may direct.

6. No Student may take out, or have in his possession, more than one folio, which he may keep four weeks; or one quarto, which he may keep three weeks; or one octavo, which he may keep two weeks; or two duodecimos, which he may keep two weeks. To preserve a habit of punctuality, and to prevent neglect of the books, it is required, that for every book not returned at the time specified, the person borrowing shall pay for each folio, fifty cents; for each quarto, forty cents; for each octavo, thirty cents; and for each duodecimo, twenty cents, for each and every week until returned. All members of the Corporation and officers of the Institution shall be subject to the above rules for returning books in good order, and to the penalties for detention.

7. No Student, while receiving books, may take down any from the shelves. If any one transgress this law, he shall be fined by the Librarian, from ten to fifty cents, at his discretion.

8. Such books as are presented, with the intention that they shall not be taken from the Library, shall not be taken therefrom; and such of the books as are very valuable for the plates, or for their rarity or antiquity, and all others that may be specified by the committee, are to be held as works of reference, and to be consulted in the Library only.

9. The officers of instruction and members of the corporation, may have not exceeeding ten volumes from the Library at any one time, to be renewed to them if required.

10. For any books delivered to the order of persons authorized to draw the same, the person giving the order shall be held answerable; and also for all fines that may accrue on the same.

11. The privileges of the Library shall be withholden from such officers of instruction and members of the Corporation, as shall have incurred fines under the preceding regulations, until such fines shall have been paid.
